

Pyongyang, September 19 (KCNA) -- Central art troupes are waging frontline-style agitation activities in the areas for recovery from damage, true to the militant appeal of the Party Central Committee.

Artistes from the National Folk Art Troupe are encouraging the people through frontline-style agitation in the campaign sites for rehabilitation in North Hwanghae Province including Taechong-ri, Unpha County.

Creators and artistes from several central art troupes including the National Theatrical Troupe and the National Circus instill revolutionary optimism into the members of the divisions of Party members of the capital city through peculiar performance activities.

Artistes from the Phibada Opera Troupe have been engaged in impressive performing activities at the construction sites in Kangwon Province.

Members of the artistes' squad for agitation for increased production of the central art troupes also continue the campaign for inspiring faith and spirit of struggle in each rehabilitation campaign area. -0-
